

ELECTRONIC SIC BO

HOW TO PLAY SIC BO

THERE ARE 8 DIFFERENT WAYS YOU CAN BET.

1. You can bet on one specific number, which must appear on all three dice. This is called a triple and is either 1,1,1 or 2,2,2 or 4,4,4 or 5,5,5 or 6,6,6.
2. You can bet on one number, which must appear on two of the three dice. This is called a Double, such as a 1,1 or 2,2 or 3,3 or 4,4 or 5,5 or 6,6.
3. You can bet that the same number from 1-6 will appear on all three dice, such as either a 1,1,1 or 2,2,2 or 3,3,3 or 4,4,4 or 5,5,5 or 6,6,6. This is called Any Triple.
4. There is an area called Small where you bet that the sum of the three dice will be equal to 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 or 10 excluding a Triple.
5. Also, there is an area called Big where you bet that the sum of the three dice will be equal to 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 or 17 excluding a Triple.
6. On the Sic Bo layout, you can place a bet in an area with the numbers 4-17 written on them. Those numbers corresponding to the sum of the three dice.
7. You can bet on two different numbers which must appear on at least two of the three dice. The numbers cannot be the same.
8. The last type of bet is where you bet on a single number that must appear on one, two or all three dice. This is shown in the layout as the dice face of 1, or 2, or 3, or 4, or 5, or 6. The payout table of this bet depends on the following:
 - if the number you chose appears on one of the three dice
 - if the number you chose appears on two of the three dice
 - if the number you chose appears on three of the three dice
